

FISH CONSUMPTION ADVISORY

The Alabama Department of Public Health has issued a fish consumption advisory for Choccolocco creek from the confluence of Snow creek and Choccolocco creek, south of Oxford, to where Choccolocco creek flows into Logan Martin. The Department recommends persons avoid eating all fish caught from this area. Several species of fish were found to have levels of polychlorinated biphenyls over the Food and Drug Administration tolerance level.

(Effective date 11/2/93)